NEW YORKERS

Do Honor to the Remains of General Grant.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—People loitered in the city hall and park all night and they were the first in the line that soon after 6 this morning began filing past the remains of General Grant. There were no great throngs awaiting admission. Two lines of policemen were placed across the plaza from the city hall entrance to the fountain. These two lines formed the passageway through which four men might pass abreast and along which all day visitors to the remains should pass.

A SWEET FACED WOMAN.

The first person to view the remains to-day was a spare built, sweet faced little woman who led with each hand a little boy. She was anxious that her children should see the general's face and the children were permitted to halt an instant and gaze over the side of the casket and peer into it. In the first minute only eighty-four persons passed the casket. At 6:40 the running average per minute was ninety-one and the total then passed was between 2,700 and 2,800 persons.

MARSHALLING THE CROWD.

At 8 o'clock nearly five hundred police were on duty marshalling the crowds into an orderly procession, which passed the remains at the rate of 150 a minute. A rate of 170 per minute was obtained for a time, but was too rapid. At 10 o'clock the line of waiting people extended around the bend at the register's office and down Centre street. At 11 o'clock over 30,000 people had viewed the remains.

A HOT TASK.

The increasing heat had melted the ardor of many who had secured places in the line and not a few dropped out after having worked their way around even into Centre street. The numbers at the point of the fountain had decreased and people at noon were dropping into line at the corner of the city hall and Chambers street and Broadway.

ONE HUNDRED A MINUTE.

The passage of people at the casket was averaging about 100 per minute and at 1 o'clock 42,000 persons had viewed the remains.

GENERAL GORDON AN AIDE.

General Gordon, of Georgia, who at Spottsylvania court house, Va., checked General Hancock's advance through the salient, on the 12th of May, 1883, and who commanded one wing of Lee's army and made a last assault upon General Grant's lines at Appomattox, has been appointed aide to General Hancock for the funeral ceremonies at the burial of General Grant.

THE ALDERMEN.

The board of aldermen at a meeting to-day resolved to attend the funeral in a body.

VICE PRESIDENT HENDRICKS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Vice President Hendricks and wife arrived this morning on their way to attend the funeral of General Grant.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

The president to-day issued the following executive order: "It is hereby ordered that the several executive departments of the department of agriculture and government printing office be closed to-morrow, Friday, August 7, at 3 o'clock p. m., to enable such employes as may desire to attend the funeral of the late ex-president, Gen. Grant, at New York."

THE FUNERAL EXPENSE.

The funeral of General Grant will cost more than sufficient to erect over his grave one of the finest memorials that the world has ever seen. The great expense of a military parade will have to be met either by the government or the members of the various organizations. The expenses of the visiting soldiery will have to be paid by some one. The invited personages will be provided for in various ways, in fact, so many are the means afforded by a great funeral, such as General Grant's will be, to dispose of money that the aggregate outlay will be nearly $1,000,000.

Scenes Yesterday and Last Night.

NEW YORK, August 6.—Hurrying crowds sought shelter from the driving rain under the eaves of the Grand Central depot twenty minutes before 5 o'clock, deploring the mischance that would turn the parade into a weary tramp through a drenching storm. These fears were groundless. Brighter skies showed in the West when the funeral train rolled into the depot. The military methods had indeed proved infallible. The escort was ready, and at the door promptly at the stroke of 5. The dark clouds had rolled over.

THE SUN BROKE FORTH,

Illuminating the glass-covered arch. As the train moved in its rays fell upon the silver mounting of the coffin, purple covered, and with the single wreath of oak leaves, placed over the heart of the dear father by the children's hands, resting upon the lid. It fell upon the wrinkled faces of the veterans who carried it tenderly as a loved child from the car to a light push-cart, brought down from Woodlawn for the purpose, and drew it up the inclined platform and across to the west side of the depot and to the vehicle that was to be the last on which the body would ever ride. With them walked six of the Loyal Legion and two Grand Army men. General Hancock and his suite passed through the gate into Forty-third street, where horses were waiting ahead of the coffin, then galloped to the head of the procession on Fifth avenue, below Thirty-fourth street. The three sons of Gen. Grant also left the depot very quietly. All the others who had come with the train followed the remains out in double file. The citizens' committee of one hundred, led by Mayor Cooper, ex-Gov. Cornell, ex-Mayor Franklin Edson and Jackson S. Schultz, walking. Next followed the regulars; behind them Gov. Hill and Gen. Farnsworth and his glittering staff, and in their turn committees of the House and Senate at Albany. In Forty-third street the catafalque waited. Eight steps led up to the raised platform upon which the veterans sat down the coffin with its wreath of oak. It bore no other marks or ornaments except the golden plate Their duty done, the veterans stepped down and took their stand beside the catafalque. The clash of troops presenting arms and

THE MOURNFUL STRAINS

Of a dirge played by the Government Band had greeted the appearance of the casket in the doorway. Files of soldiers of the Seventy-first regiment were drawn across the street and on the opposite curb from the portal to the catafalque. As the casket was borne between them the teeming crowds behind the militiamen uncovered, and the mellow sun-light fell upon thousands of bowed heads. Then the heavy tread of the regulars broke the stillness as they marched up to take their place beside the catafalque. Twelve colored men seized the reins of the twelve horses that were shrouded in black, like the hearse, and standing beside them awaited the signal.

After a wait of half an hour

THE PROCESSION STARTED.

The head of the cortege was far down Fifth avenue. When the order to march was given, the stalwart figure of Gen. Hancock was in the lead. A block in front twenty mounted policemen cleared the streets. Every slope or step that might furninsh a point of observation was occupied; every dismantled lamp post had its tenant, and on telegraph and electric light poles the boys hung like the knots on a rope. Everywhere as the coffin passed heads were bowed. The huge crowd was silent and absolutely voiceless. From far ahead was heard the quarreling of the police and the crowd, but where the procession passed all was still save the heavy tramp of the marchers, the rumbling of carriages, the roll of the muffled drums and the mournful dirges of the bands.

When the procession arrived at the park, after 7 o'clock, the space on the plaza directly in front of the steps leading up to the heavily draped portico of the City Hall had been kept clean by the police. General Hancock and his staff moved into the park followed by the Twenty-second regiment, ascended the steps and passed into the building.

MINISTER KEILY

Officially Rejected by the Austrian Government.

By Telegraph to The Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The department of state is in receipt of a cablegram from Mr. Lee, secretary of the American legation at Vienna, saying that the Austrian government has positively declined to receive Mr. Keily as United States minister. The authorities of Austria give no reason for the action and merely say they will not receive the official. Mr. Keily is now in Paris, where he has been for some weeks. He also has been informed of the decision of the Austrian authorities. Mr. Lee has been designated to act as charge d'affairs for the present.

The secretary of the treasury to-day promoted James R. Lake, clerk of class four, to be assistant chief of the customs division of the secretary's office.

WASHINGTON, August 6.—The Civil Service Commission, yesterday, made its report to the President in regard to the charges against Postmaster Aquilla Jones, of Indianapolis, referred to the Commission for investigation by the President.

The Commission states that it does not assert that the postmaster has made any appointment or removals in violation of any provision of the Civil Service act or rules. Only the first and second rules put any limitation upon the authority to remove, and no violation of either of them has been charged or proved. As to the charges that Mr. Jones had made public declarations of his intention to discriminate politically in the selection of applicants for positions, the commission states that while the statement in itself was in violation of the spirit of the Civil Service rules, no act was proven to have been committed in violation of the Civil Service law. "Mr. Jones," the commission says, "was not possessed of full information about the Civil Service regulations."

Relative to the third charge, that the civil service examination at Indiapolis, July 10, was not fairly conducted, the commission says, "It was a matter of regret on the part of the commission that it was not practicable for the chief examiner or one of the commissioners to be present at the examination of July 10th. Inasmuch as only one of the three examiners was familiar with the duties of his position, the investigation has shown that the examination was not as thoroughly supervised as was desirable, but the most searching inquiry has failed to show that there was any cheating attempted or any injustice having such a suggestion."

THE Jerusalem chamber, in which the Bible was revised, is a part of Westminster Abbey, and is said to take its name from tapestries or pictures in it representing scenes in Jerusalem. It is a simple rectangular room, wainscoted with cedar from the Holy Land. In the center of the room stands a long broad table. It was in this chamber that Henry IV. died in 1413, when he was on the eve of a pilgrimage to Palestine. In the same room Addison and Sir Isaac Newton lay in state before they were laid in their final resting places. King James' version of the Bible, the Westminster Catechism, and the Common Prayer Book have all come from the Jerusalem chamber.

A LADY in Brunswick, Ga., found a nest of half-grown mocking-birds in her yard recently. She succeeded in capturing them. They were put in a temporary cage and the cage put in a room. During the day the mother bird flew into the room, and was readily caught and placed in the cage with the brood. She began instantly to feed them with the food which was in the cage, and did not seem to notice the imprisonment. On the day following the male bird flew into the room, and offered no resistance nor showed any signs of fight when the lady captured him. He was placed in the same cage, and the lady now has the entire family. They seem contented and happy.

FROM Mr. Ruskin's Autobiography: "My mother forced me, by steady daily toil, to learn long chapters of that discipline, patient, accurate, and resolute, I owe not only much of my general power of taking pains, but the best part of my taste in literature. Once knowing the 23d of Deuteronomy, the 119th Psalm, the 15th of I Chrinthians, the Sermon on the Mount, and most of the Apocalypse, every syllable by heart and having always a way of thinking with myself what words meant, it was not possible for me, even in the foolishest time of my youth, to write entirely superficial or formal English, and the affectation of trying to write like Hooker and George Herbert was the most innocent I could have fallen into."

WAGER ON IT.

A newspaper advertisement means business. It is a guarantee of earnestness. No man ever inserted one because of a poetical or artistic yearning. The advertiser may lie about the quality of his goods, but no one doubts the sincerity of his wish to sell them. The plain circular or the gaudy chromo is thrown aside whenever it encumbers the morning mail, but without the least danger that it will ever be picked out of the waste basket. But the newspaper comes every day. It is a welcome visitor, and one and another thumbs it over until it is worn and spoiled. Quietly as the coming of the dew, and as regularly as the sun, it insists on appearing, and each time it has its postscript of advertisements supplementing its budget of news. It is useless to say that nobody reads advertisements. They do read them. Four out of five men may read them for different reasons, but four out of every five will certainly read them. It is a part of the duty of getting the news of the day to see what new or notable thing is for sale. The longer the world wags, the surer it is that it must have its newspaper and its advertisements.—Cincinnati Post.

"There's a good deal to be said on both sides," was the cautious response of good old Sir Roger de Coverly, when he was called in to settle a dispute. If the point had been regarding the merits of Mishler's Herb Bitters, Sir Roger would have had no need of hesitation, for he with all the world would have been ready to answer that it is the greatest remedy in the world for dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache, dizziness, foul stomach, blood impurities, and all diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys.

You are hereby notified that the mayor and common council of the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, will present the following petition to the Board of Commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, on the first Monday of September next, being the 7th day of September, 1885, and will then and there ask that said petition be granted:

RESOLUTION AND DESCRIPTION OF LOTS AND LANDS RELATING TO THE CITY LIMITS.

Be it Resolved, That the Common Council of the city of Fort Wayne do petition the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, at their first regular meeting after due notice by publication, for the annexation to the said city of the lands and territory not laid off in lots embraced in the list hereto attached, and that the city civil engineer be and he is hereby directed to file therewith his verified maps and survey of said lands and territory and that due notice of the pendency of said petition be given to the owners of said lands and territory by publication in THE FORT WAYNE DAILY SENTINEL, said petition to be as follows.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Allen County, State of Indiana.

Your petitioners, the mayor and common council of the city of Fort Wayne, do respectfully petition your honorable body to annex to the said city of Fort Wayne the lands and territory set out and fully described by metes and bounds, with names of owners, in the list filed herewith and marked Exhibit "A." All of said lands and territory are contiguous to said city and not laid off in lots, and the owners will not consent to the annexation thereof. The reasons for the annexation thereof are because the growth of said city and her business interests require it. The vicinity adjacent to said lands and territory is thickly populated and greatly in need, as well as said territory itself, of streets, alleys and sidewalks, which ought to be opened and constructed through and upon said lands and territory. That public health and convenience require that said lands and territory should be under the jurisdiction of said city in order that the same may be drained by sewers and ditches and lighted with gas, and it is necessary the city should have jurisdiction over the same for the purpose of enforcing ordinances and police regulations for the protection of property and persons and for the peace and welfare of the citizens of said city. That petitioners have filed herewith and made a part hereof the plat and maps of said lands and territory, duly verified and marked Exhibit "B." HERMAN MICHAEL.

Which resolution was on motion adopted by the following vote: Ayes, 17, viz: Councilmen Doehrman, Gocke, Kelker, Kensill, Kramer, Lincoln, Michael, Mohr, Prentiss, Racine, Read, Scheid, Storm, Schwartz, Tresselt, Wessel and Woulfe, Nays, none.

Gentlemen—I have examined the report of Dr. Geo. M. He says that a 4 per cent. solution in water is an active germ destroyer. I am therefore justified in recommending its general use as directed. (Signed), OSCAR C. DEWOLF, M. Try Jones if you want fine Photos.

Sells Brothers' circus was at Huntington yesterday.

Jesse H. Young, a clerk in the post office, is quite sick.

Martin Seymour, a Muncie brakeman, injured his foot last night while climbing from a car.

Mrs. Al Noll and Master Johnny Monahan are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fountain, at Toledo.

Miss Dell Woodruff of Toledo, Ohio, is the guest of her sister Mrs. J. G. Fisher, of 121 West Washington.

Sion S. Bass Relief Corps meets tonight and will arrange to hold memorial services in honor of General Grant.

The Lafayette Courier says: "Miss May Bectol, of East Union street, has gone to Fort Wayne to reside with relatives."

Jay McCracken, agent of the Pittsburg road at Columbia City, has taken up his residence in the Shinneman property there.

Charley Murphy, the young man drowned at Rome City, left a gold watch and enough of other personal property to pay all the funeral expenses.

A cement sidewalk is to be laid in front of the store rooms of H. W. Mordhurst and Golden & Monahan. Some claim it is more substantial than a stone walk.

Messrs. Watson, Miller, Mergel, Ross, Durfee, Wortle, Kelsey and Reutschenkrider left for Lagrange to-day, to participate in the shooting tournament there.

VanAmburg and Reiche Bros. advertising car is at the south depot. The city will be billed by the show paste brigade under the direction of the local artist, Captain Richards.

The Pittsburg officials yesterday increased the number of engines engaged in the emigrant and fast freight departments to six. This was done to equalize pay, which is $6.50 a trip for engineers.

Kasper Fuier, a traveler from Switzerland, tasted our liquor too freely yesterday, and Deputy Marshal Patton put him in the calaboose. The old man was not prosecuted this morning and Mayor Muhler let him go.

That prevention is better than cure is an old adage. The best prophylactic, when a cough or cold is apprehended, is Red Star Cough Cure, and if the cough has obtained a foothold, this new remedy this new remedy will remove it.

Roetta B. Abbott yesterday sold to Horace B. Morehouse lots 42 and 43, McLachlin's addition, for $450. Margaret Hamilton has sold lot 223, Hamilton's addition, for $700. Lots 1 and 4, Broadway place, has been deeded to S. B. Bond.

The Columbia City Post says: "The celebrated Dr. Welsh is the champion of all street medicine sellers ever known. He never utters a single sentence of straight English and yet his illiteracy is his success. As a tooth puller he is certainly the champion of the world."

And now the freeholder who has beautified his premises with cement walks is liable for damages as an infringer upon a patent taken out for the same ten or fifteen years ago. The royalty asked is five cents a foot. There are a number of such walks in Fort Wayne, and this item from an exchange may interest. At South Bend a suit is pending to recover the royalty.

Extensive frauds are being perpetrated on the Fort Wayne railroads, here and elsewhere, by persons who claim to belong to the theatrical profession. They apply for tickets over routes, by which they never intend traveling, secure transportation at theatrical rates, and sell the tickets to scalpers. An effort is being made to ferret out the offenders and black list them.

An adjourned meeting of the committee on the Grant memorial services was held yesterday afternoon at the office of Hon. F. P. Randall, who presided, Mayor Muhler, ex-officio chairman, declining in his favor. George DeWald reported the collection of $200 to defray the expenses of the memorial services and general progress was reported. Thirteen guns will be fired Saturday morning, and one each hour thereafter until General Grant's age is numbered. The committee will hold another meeting Friday afternoon to have final action.

Outcast London.

Much excitement has recently been made by reports published on the vile condition of the slums of London. In one cellar was found a family consisting of a man sick with small pox, his dying wife, three half naked and dirty children and one pig. In some parts there is one gin mill to every hundred persons. What defilement! Yet corresponding impurities often defile the human blood. They can be cast out by Brown's Iron Bitters, the great strengthener and purifier. Mr. D. J. Strange, of Stark Lake, Florida, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the best blood purifier I ever tried. It gives all the satisfaction a man can want."

THE expulsion of a low-necked lady from a Philadelphia ball-room has led to the organization there of a fashionable society for the extirpation of the decollete dress. It was at first resolved that none but high-necks should be worn, but as a concession to youthful plumpness it was finally decided that a modest triangular or heart-shaped cut in front might be allowed. It was also decided that for the advantageous display of diamond or pearl necklaces the corsage might be cut square if well filled in with lace. On the question of sleeveless gowns, shoulder-straps were emphatically trampled upon and rejected. No sleeves must be shorter than the elbow. It is stated that when this decision was reached two women with handsome arms withdrew in disgust.

"Hunt's Remedy is the most effective medicine I ever used in my practice for dropsy and kidney diseases. It has almost raised the dead." L. A. PALMER, M. D., Mystic.

Listen to Your Wife.

The Manchester Guardian, June, 8, 1883, says:
At one of the

Looking on the woodland ways! With clumps of Rhododendroms and great masses of May blossoms!!! "There was an interesting group.

It included one who had been a "cotton spinner" but was now so

Paralyzed!!!

That he could only bear to lie in a reclining position.

This refers to my case.

I was first Attacked twelve years ago with "Locomoter Ataxy"
(A paralytic disease of nerve fibre rarely ever cured)
and was for several years barely able to get about.

And for the last five years not able to attend to my business, although

Many things have been done for me.
The last experiment being nerve stretching.
Two years ago I was voted into the Home for incurables! Near Manchester, in May, 1882.

I am no "Advocate"; "For anything in the shape of patent" Medicines?

And made many objections to my dear wife's constant urging to try Hop Bitters, but finally to pacify her —

Consented!!

I had not quite finished the first bottle when I felt a change come over me. This was Saturday, November 3. On Sunday morning I felt so strong I said to my room companions, "I was sure I could 'Walk!

So started across the floor and back.

I hardly knew how to contain myself. I was all over the house. I am gaining strength each day, and can walk quite safe without any "Stick!"
Or Support.
I am now at my home living again. I have been a member of the Manchester "Royal Exchange"
For nearly 30 years, and was most heartily congratulated on going into the room Thursday. Very gratefully yours, John Blackburn, Manchester, Eng., Dec., 24, 1883.
Two years later am perfectly well.

If when you call for Hop Bitters (see green cluster of Hops on the white label) the druggist hands out any stuff called C. D. CANCER OF TONGUE!

A Case Resembling that of Gen. Grant.

Some ten years ago I had a scrofulous sore on my right hand which gave me great trouble, and under the old time treatment was healed up, and I supposed I was well. I found, however, it had only been driven into the system by the use of potash and mercury and in March, 1882, it broke out in my throat, and concentrated in what some of the doctors denominated cancer. I was placed under treatment for this disease. Some six or seven of the best physicians of the country had me at different times under their charge, among them three specialists in this line; but one after another would exhaust their skill and drop me, for I grew worse continually. The cancer had eaten through my cheek, destroying the roof of my mouth and upper lip, then attacked my tongue, palate and lower lip, destroying the palate and under lip entirely and half my tongue, eating out to the top of my left cheek bone and up to the left eye. From a hearty, robust woman of 150 pounds, I was reduced to a mere frame of skin and bones, almost unable to turn myself in bed. I could not eat any solid food, but subsisted on liquids and my tongue was so far gone I could not talk. The anguish of mind and the horrible sufferings of body which I experienced never can be revealed. Given up by physicians to die, with no hope of recovery upon the part of friends who sat around my bedside expecting every moment to be my last; in fact, my husband would place his hand on me every now and then to see whether I was alive or not, and at one time all decided that life was extinct, and my death was reported all over the country.

Such was my wretched and helpless condition the first of last October (1884), when my friends commenced giving me Swift's Specfic. In less than a month, the eating places stopped and healing commenced, and the fearful aperture in my cheek has been closed and firmly knitted together. A progress of a new under lip is progressing finely, and the tongue which was almost destroyed is being recovered, and it seems that nature is supplying a new tongue. I can talk so that my friends can readily understand me, and can eat solid food again. I am able to walk about wherever I please without the assistance of anyone and have gained fifty pounds of flesh. All this under the blessing of a mercifully Heavenly Father, is due to Swift's Specific. I am a wonder and a marvel to all my friends, hundreds of whom have known my intense sufferings, and have visited me in my afflictions. While I am not entirely well, yet my gratitude is none the less devout, and I am confident that a perfect recovery is now in sight. If any doubt these facts, I would refer them to Hon. John H. Traylor, state senator of this district, who is my neighbor, Dr. T. S. Bradfield, of LaGrange, Ga., or to any other persons living in the southern part of Troupe county, Ga.

Magnolia Balm

is a secret aid to beauty. Many a lady owes her freshness to it, who would rather not tell, and you can't tell.

Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works,

No. 12 West Columbia Street Fort Wayne, Indiana.

To Painters

And others wanting First-class Paints: Do you know that you have in Fort Wayne a Manufacturer of Mixed Paint and Grinder of Colors, where you can buy your Paints from first hand instead of paying the middle man his profits, which are from 25 to 33⅓ per cent. O.L. STARKEY, the Painter and proprietor of the Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works, came to Fort Wayne in April, 1856, and is identified as one of the old citizens who has helped build up Fort Wayne, and his knowledge of Paints and the composition of pigments to form different shades and tints is well-known to the public, and his long practical experience in painting gives him the knowledge of Paints that a mere dealer cannot have for he does not know anything about Paints, as he buys them sealed up and he cannot tell you what it takes to make this or that shade. All he knows is what the label on the can says. Neither can he tell you shades that will or will not fade. By buying your Paints of O. L. STARKEY you can get all the information you want. I am making Liquid Paints in all shades and colors; also the same shades and colors in paste form, the same thickness as white lead and requires thinning down the same as white lead. In making the different shades my formulas are all registered giving the amount of each color it takes to form certain shades all thoroughly mixed together in the powder mills, then wet down and run through a mixing machine, and from there to the mills where it is all ground together making a pigment that cannot be made by hand. Call or send and get some of my sample cards of colors and tints; also see elevations of gothic houses colored up with four and five shades, which will give you a good idea how to paint and ornament the outside of your houses.

I say again, do not buy of the middle man if you want to save money. I will guarantee my prices and quality of goods with any manufacturer in the United States.

PAWNED A TICKER.

The Son of a Celina Capitalist Comes Here For a Time and Drops His Gold Watch.

Some days ago Capt. Hugh M. Diehl received a telegram from Edward Landfair, dated at Celina, Ohio, saying: "Ask Officer Stewart where my son, Robert, pawned his watch. Redeem it and send it C. O. D." There is no "Officer Stewart," and the captain could not find the watch. He so notified the Celina papa, and yesterday the old man hastened here. He called on a young lady whom his wayward son courted and the woman explained the "session," as the young man's spree is called in society. Mr. Landfair and Captain Diehl proceeded to a fashionable saloon and redeemed the gold watch and chain paying $40. This time piece Mr. Landfair gave his son a few weeks ago when the heir returned from a tour of California. He could not stand such prosperity and came here to work it off. Mr. Landfair is a millionaire, but his son is preparing to spread the wealth to the four winds.

The young man's paramour is in the city and smiles on susceptible people whom she likes to work as she did the Celina youth. The girl has rooms on Calhoun street and the police are instructed to make her a prisoner when they find her. This is the wages of sin.

A Benefit Association Changed.

At the annual meeting of the delegates of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Mutual Benefit Association, it was decided to change the name of the association to "The Pennsylvania Company's Mutual Benefit Association" and it was arranged to hold the next meeting at Alliance, Ohio, July 23, 1886. The matter of changes in the constitution and by-laws coming up for consideration, it was agreed that the loss of an arm, or of a leg, would henceforth be considered, in applications for membership, as a partial disability, and the loss of both arms, or both legs, or both eyes, a total disability. All members of good standing in the old association will be taken into the new association as charter members, regardless of their ages, but persons who have forfeited their membership by not paying up assessments, if over fifty years old, will not be admitted to the new association.

Dr. Lighthall's License.

The Indianapolis Times says: "Dr. J. I. Lighthall, the peripatetic tooth carpenter, obtained a physician's license at the Clerk's office last week from one of Mr. McLain's deputies. He presented a piploma from the dental department of the University of Tennessee, at Clarksville. The license was issued only after one or two physicians, who happened to be in the office at the time, advised that it be done. As soon as Mr. McLain heard of it he took steps toward revoking the license. He is now awaiting word from Dr. Lighthall. If the latter refuses to return the license, Mr. McLain will publish his revoking order."

Craig & Irvine Attorneys at Law.

Mr. W. L. Craig, formerly receiver of the Toledo, Cincinnati and St. Louis, and Mr. James Irvine, the well known railroad lawyer of Lima, have formed a partnership for the practice of law. They will have an office on the fifth floor of the produce exchange building at Toledo. Mr. Irvine was formerly the law partner of Calvin Brice, the first Nickel Plate solicitor, who made a fortune in railroad speculation and moved to New York. Mr. Craig is one of the brightest and shrewdest men in the country, and it is safe to say the firm will grow into prominence and wealth.

A Nude Outrage.

The Rome City Clipper says: "It gives our popular resort a good name to allow a crowd of Fort Wayne roughs to go in bathing from the steamer house as was the case Friday, the day of the policemen's excursion, where ladies passing to and from the Park and Jem Island, could not help but gaze on their nude forms. Was our constable asleep, if not, why did he allow this?"

This is little worse than the spectacle of grown men bathing in the Spring Beach surf with little else to hide them than charity and an old pair of drawers, clipped off at the knees. The Clipper should suppress this.

Of Course We Will.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL:

The Golden Eagle Base Ball club, of this city, does not belong to Tom Clark, nor is it composed partly of colored boys, as stated in yesterday's SENTINEL. It is an amateur club, composed of young and supple fellows, who play ball creditably, and as champions of Fort Wayne should receive, at least, fair treatment from the press, and this you will readily give within your columns, I am sure. A FRIEND OF THE CLUB.

Honor to General Grant.

Postmaster Kaough received this general order No. 614 to-day:

In recognition of the nation's loss in the death of General Ulysses S. Grant, and in participation of its lamentation and expression of reverence for his honored memory, all post offices in the several states and territories of the Union are ordered to be closed between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m., on Saturday, the 8th day of August, appointed for the celebration of his funeral obsequies.

By order of the postmaster general.

A Youth from Bavaria Toys With a Pistol and Shoots His Companion—Almost a Tragedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ketsch arrived here some months ago with a party of emigrants. They came from Bavaria, where Napoleon and the German chieftans were wont to look for their finest soldiers. The emigrants engaged rooms on Barr street, between Washington and Jefferson streets. Mr. Ketsch went to work at the Peters Box and Lumber company and soon sent for his son and his wife's brother, named Miller. The boys, aged thirteen and twenty-five, arrived this morning and at once proceeded to the Ketsch house. Their first business was to wash and clean themselvee of coal dust, and while thus engaged in the room assigned them, young Ketsch discovered a revolver on the shelf. The weapon was neat and novel to him and he proceeded to explore it. This experiment proved disastrous, as the boy promptly sent a bullet through his companion's right leg, just above the knee. Young Miller howled with pain and the neighborhood was soon aroused. Dr. Mortz was summoned and administered what relief he could to the poor boy, who cannot walk and may loose the use of his limb, as paralysis threatens to seize him. Young Kelsch never saw a a revolver before and the result of his discovery nearly frightened the life out of him.

Out Door Sports.

With the opening of the season of out door sports comes the time of trouble for the poor victims of Hay Fever and Rose Cold. For them flowers have no odor and the summer little or no beauty. To snuff, sneeze and wipe their weeping eyes for three or four successive months—this is their pitiable portion. There is no help in sea voyages, there is no help in high mountain air. But there is a positive cure in Ely's Cream Balm. Try it. If you continue to suffer it is because you neglect a remedy as sure as it is cheap and pleasant.

The President Closes Two Departments and Employes Can go to Grant's Funeral.

NEW YORKERS

Do Honor to the Remains of General Grant.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—People loitered in the city hall and park all night and they were the first in the line that soon after 6 this morning began filing past the remains of General Grant. There were no great throngs awaiting admission. Two lines of policemen were placed across the plaza from the city hall entrance to the fountain. These two lines formed the passageway through which four men might pass abreast and along which all day visitors to the remains should pass.

A SWEET FACED WOMAN.

The first person to view the remains to-day was a spare built, sweet faced little woman who led with each hand a little boy. She was anxious that her children should see the general's face and the children were permitted to halt an instant and gaze over the side of the casket and peer into it. In the first minute only eighty-four persons passed the casket. At 6:40 the running average per minute was ninety-one and the total then passed was between 2,700 and 2,800 persons.

MARSHALLING THE CROWD.

At 8 o'clock nearly five hundred police were on duty marshalling the crowds into an orderly procession, which passed the remains at the rate of 150 a minute. A rate of 170 per minute was obtained for a time, but was too rapid. At 10 o'clock the line of waiting people extended around the bend at the register's office and down Centre street. At 11 o'clock over 30,000 people had viewed the remains.

A HOT TASK.

The increasing heat had melted the ardor of many who had secured places in the line and not a few dropped out after having worked their way around even into Centre street. The numbers at the point of the fountain had decreased and people at noon were dropping into line at the corner of the city hall and Chambers street and Broadway.

ONE HUNDRED A MINUTE.

The passage of people at the casket was averaging about 100 per minute and at 1 o'clock 42,000 persons had viewed the remains.

GENERAL GORDON AN AIDE.

General Gordon, of Georgia, who at Spottsylvania court house, Va., checked General Hancock's advance through the salient, on the 12th of May, 1863, and who commanded one wing of Lee's army and made a last assault upon General Grant's lines at Appomattox, has been appointed aide to General Hancock for the funeral ceremonies at the burial of General Grant.

THE ALDERMEN.

The board of aldermen at a meeting to-day resolved to attend the funeral in a body.

VICE PRESIDENT HENDRICKS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Vice President Hendricks and wife arrived this morning on their way to attend the funeral of General Grant.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

The president to-day issued the following executive order: "It is hereby ordered that the several executive departments of the department of agriculture and government printing office be closed to-morrow, Friday, August 7, at 3 o'clock p. m., to enable such employes as may desire to attend the funeral of the late ex-president, Gen. Grant, at New York."

THE FUNERAL EXPENSE.

The funeral of General Grant will cost more than sufficient to erect over his grave one of the finest memorials that the world has ever seen. The great expense of a military parade will have to be met either by the government or the members of the various organizations. The expense of the visiting soldiery will have to be paid by some one. The invited personages will be provided for in various ways, in fact, so many are the means afforded by a great funeral, such as General Grant's will be, to dispose of money that the aggregate outlay will be nearly $1,000,000.

Scenes Yesterday and Last Night.

NEW YORK, August 6.—Hurrying crowds sought shelter from the driving rain under the eaves of the Grand Central depot twenty minutes before 5 o'clock, deploring the mischance that would turn the parade into a weary tramp through a drenching storm. These fears were groundless. Brighter skies showed in the West when the funeral train rolled into the depot. The military methods had indeed proved infallible. The escort was ready, and at the door promptly at the stroke of 5. The dark clouds had rolled over.

THE SUN BROKE FORTH,

Illuminating the glass-covered arch. As the train moved in its rays fell upon the silver mounting of the coffin, purple covered, and with the single wreath of oak leaves, placed over the heart of the dear father by the children's hands, resting upon the lid. It fell upon the wrinkled faces of the veterans who carried it tenderly as a loved child from the car to a light push-cart, brought down from Woodlawn for the purpose, and drew it up the inclined platform and across to the west side of the depot and to the vehicle that was to be the last on which the body would ever ride. With them walked six of the Loyal Legion and two Grand Army men. General Hancock and his suite passed through the gate into Forty-third street, where horses were waiting ahead of the coffin, then galloped to the head of the procession on Fifth avenue, below Thirty-fourth street. The three sons of Gen. Grant also left the depot very quietly. All the others who had come with the train followed the remains out in double file. The citizens' committee of one hundred, led by Mayor Cooper, ex-Gov. Cornell, ex-Mayor Franklin Edson and Jackson S. Schultz, walking. Next followed the regulars; behind them Gov. Hill and Gen. Farnsworth and his glittering staff, and in their turn committees of the House and Senate at Albany. In Forty-third street the catafalque waited. Eight steps led up to the raised platform upon which the veterans sat down the coffin with its wreath of oak. It bore no other marks or ornaments except the golden plate. Their duty done, the veterans stepped down and took their stand beside the catafalque. The clash of troops presenting arms and

THE MOURNFUL STRAINS

Of a dirge played by the Government Band had greeted the appearance of the casket in the doorway. Files of soldiers of the Seventy-first regiment were drawn across the street and on the opposite curb from the portal to the catafalque. As the casket was borne between them the teeming crowds behind the militiamen uncovered, and the mellow sun-light fell upon thousands of bowed heads. Then the heavy tread of the regulars broke the stillness as they marched up to take their place beside the catafalque. Twelve colored men seized the reins of the twelve horses that were shrouded in black, like the hearse, and standing beside them awaited the signal.

After a wait of half an hour

THE PROCESSION STARTED.

The head of the cortege was far down Fifth avenue. When the order to march was given, the stalwart figure of Gen. Hancock was in the lead. A block in front twenty mounted policemen cleared the streets. Every slope or step that might furnish a point of observation was occupied; every dismantled lamp post had its tenant, and on telegraph and electric light poles the boys hung like the knots on a rope. Everywhere as the coffin passed heads were bowed. The huge crowd was silent and absolutely voiceless. From far ahead was heard the quarreling of the police and the crowd, but where the procession passed all was still save the heavy tramp of the marchers, the rumbling of carriages, the roll of the muffled drums and the mournful dirges of the bands.

When the procession arrived at the park, after 7 o'clock, the space on the plaza directly in front of the steps leading up to the heavily draped portico of the City Hall had been kept clean by the police. General Hancock and his staff moved into the park followed by the Twenty-second regiment, ascended the steps and passed into the building.

MINISTER KEILY

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The department of state is in receipt of a cablegram from Mr. Lee, secretary of the American legation at Vienna, saying that the Austrian government has positively declined to receive Mr. Keily as United States minister. The authorities of Austria give no reason for the action and merely say they will not receive the official. Mr. Keily is now in Paris, where he has been for some weeks. He also has been informed of the decision of the Austrian authorities. Mr. Lee has been designated to act as charge d'affairs for the present.

REVENUE OFFICERS.

Appointments of collectors of internal revenue: John Dawlin, twenty-second district, Pennsylvania; Frank Schlander, one hundred and ninth district, Pennsylvania.

Surveyors of customs: John T. Gathright, Louisville, Ky.; Leon Trousdale, Nashville, Tenn.

The secretary of the treasury to-day promoted James R. Lake, clerk of class four, to be assistant chief of the customs division of the secretary's office.

WASHINGTON, August 6.—The Civil Service Commission, yesterday, made its report to the President in regard to the charges against Postmaster Aquilla Jones, of Indianapolis, referred to the Commission for investigation by the President.

The Commission states that it does not assert that the postmaster has made any appointment or removals in violation of any provision of the Civil Service act or rules. Only the first and second rules put any limitation upon the authority to remove, and no violation of either of them has been charged or proved. As to the charges that Mr. Jones had made public declarations of his intention to discriminate politically in the selection of applicants for positions, the commission states that while the statement in itself was in violation of the spirit of the Civil Service rules, no act was proven to have been committed in violation of the Civil Service law. "Mr. Jones," the commission says, "was not possessed of full information about the Civil Service regulations."

Relative to the third charge, that the civil service examination at Indianapolis, July 10, was not fairly conducted, the commission says, "It was a matter of regret on the part of the commission that it was not practicable for the chief examiner or one of the commissioners to be present at the examination of July 10th. Inasmuch as only one of the three examiners was familiar with the duties of his position, the investigation has shown that the examination was not as thoroughly supervised as was desirable, but the most searching inquiry has failed to show that there was any cheating attempted or any injustice having such a suggestion."

THE Jerusalem chamber, in which the Bible was revised, is a part of Westminster Abbey, and is said to take its name from tapestries or pictures in it representing scenes in Jerusalem. It is a simple rectangular room, wainscoted with cedar from the Holy Land. In the center of the room stands a long broad table. It was in this chamber that Henry IV. died in 1413, when he was on the eve of a pilgrimage to Palestine. In the same room Addison and Sir Isaac Newton lay in state before they were laid in their final resting places. King James' version of the Bible, the Westminster Catechism, and the Common Prayer Book have all come from the Jerusalem chamber.

A LADY in Brunswick, Ga., found a nest of half-grown mocking-birds in her yard recently. She succeeded in capturing them. They were put in a temporary cage and the cage put in a room. During the day the mother bird flew into the room, and was readily caught and placed in the cage with the brood. She began instantly to feed them with the food which was in the cage, and did not seem to notice the imprisonment. On the day following the male bird flew into the room, and offered no resistance nor showed any signs of fight when the lady captured him. He was placed in the same cage, and the lady now has the entire family. They seem contented and happy.

FROM Mr. Ruskin's Autobiography: "My mother forced me, by steady daily toil, to learn long chapters of that discipline, patient, accurate, and resolute. I owe not only much of my general power of taking pains, but the best part of my taste in literature. Once knowing the 23d of Deuteronomy, the 119th Psalm, the 15th of I Chrinthians, the Sermon on the Mount, and most of the Apocalypse, every syllable by heart and having always a way of thinking with myself what words meant, it was not possible for me, even in the foolishest time of my youth, to write entirely superficial or formal English, and the affectation of trying to write like Hooker and George Herbert was the most innocent I could have fallen into."

WAGER ON IT.

A newspaper advertisement means business. It is a guarantee of earnestness. No man ever inserted one because of a poetical or artistic yearning. The advertiser may lie about the quality of his goods, but no one doubts the sincerity of his wish to sell them. The plain circular or the gaudy chromo is thrown aside whenever it encumbers the morning mail, but without the least danger that it will ever be picked out of the waste basket. But the newspaper comes every day. It is a welcome visitor, and one and another thumbs it over until it is worn and spoiled. Quietly as the coming of the dew, and as regularly as the sun, it insists on appearing, and each time it has its postscript of advertisements supplementing its budget of news. It is useless to say that nobody reads advertisements. They do read them. Four out of five men may read them for different reasons, but four out of every five will certainly read them. It is a part of the duty of getting the news of the day to see what new or notable thing is for sale. The longer the world wags, the surer it is that it must have its newspaper and its advertisements.—Cincinnati Post.

RESOLUTION AND DESCRIPTION OF LOTS AND LANDS RELATING TO THE CITY LIMITS.

Be it Resolved, That the Common Council of the city of Fort Wayne, petition the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, at the [illegible] regular meeting after due notice by publication, for the annexation to the said city of the lands and territory not laid off in lots [illegible] as described in the list hereto attached, and that the city civil engineer be and he is hereby directed to file therewith his verified maps and surveys of said lands and territory, and that due notice of the pendency of said petition be given to the owners of said lands and territory by publication in THE FORT WAYNE DAILY SENTINEL, said petition to be as follows.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Allen County, State of Indiana:

Your petitioners, the mayor and common council of the city of Fort Wayne, respectfully petition your honorable body to annex to the said city of Fort Wayne the lands and territory selected and described by metes and bounds, with names of owners, in the list filed herewith and marked Exhibit "A." All of said lands and territory are contiguous to said city and not laid off in lots, and the owners will not consent to the annexation thereof. The reasons for the annexation thereof are because the growth of said city and her business interests require it. The vicinity adjacent to said lands and territory is thickly populated and greatly in need, as well as said territory itself, of streets, alleys and sidewalks, which ought to be opened and constructed through and upon said lands and territory. That public health and convenience require that said lands and territory should be under the jurisdiction of said city in order that the same may be drained by sewers and ditches and lighted with gas, and it is necessary the city should have jurisdiction over the same for the purpose of enforcing ordinances and police regulations for the protection of property and persons and for the peace and welfare of the citizens of said city. That petitioners have filed herewith and made a part hereof the plat and maps of said lands and territory, duly verified and marked Exhibit "B."

HERMAN MICHAEL.

Which resolution was on motion adopted by the following vote: Ayes, 17, viz: Councilmen Doehrman, Goeke, Ketker, Kensill, Kramer, Lincoln, Michael, Mohr, Prentiss, Racine, Read, Scheid, Storm, Schwartz, Tresselt, Wessel and Woulfe. Nays, none.

Gentlemen—I have examined the report of Dr. Geo. M. Try Jones if you want fine Photos.

Sells Brothers' circus was at Huntington yesterday.

Jesse H. Young, a clerk in the post office, is quite sick.

Martin Seymour, a Muncie brakeman, injured his foot last night while climbing from a car.

Mrs. Al Noll and Master Johnny Monahan are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fountain, at Toledo.

Miss Dell Woodruff of Toledo, Ohio, is the guest of her sister Mrs. J. G. Fisher, of 121 West Washington.

Sion S. Bass Relief Corps meets to-night and will arrange to hold memorial services in honor of General Grant.

The Lafayette Courier says: "Miss May Beetol, of East Union street, has gone to Fort Wayne to reside with relatives."

Jay McCracken, agent of the Pittsburg road at Columbia City, has taken up his residence in the Shinneman property there.

Charley Murphy, the young man drowned at Rome City, left a gold watch and enough of other personal property to pay all the funeral expenses.

A cement sidewalk is to be laid in front of the store rooms of H. W. Mordhurst and Golden & Monahan. Some claim it is more substantial than a stone walk.

Messrs. Watson, Miller, Mergel, Ross, Durfee, Wortle, Kelsey and Beutschenkriler left for Lagrange to-day, to participate in the shooting tournament there.

VanAmburg and Reiche Bros. advertising car is at the south depot. The city will be billed by the show paste brigade under the direction of the local artist, Captain Richards.

The Pittsburg officials yesterday increased the number of engines engaged in the emigrant and fast freight departments to six. This was done to equalize pay, which is $6.50 a trip for engineers.

Kasper Fuier, a traveler from Switzerland, tasted our liquor too freely yesterday, and Deputy Marshal Patton put him in the calaboose. The old man was not prosecuted this morning and Mayor Muhler let him go.

That prevention is better than cure is an old adage. The best prophylactic, when a cough or cold is apprehended, is Red Star Cough Cure, and if the cough has obtained a foothold, this new remedy this new remedy will remove it.

Roetta B. Abbott yesterday sold to Horace B. Morehouse lots 42 and 43, McLachlin's addition, for $450. Margaret Hamilton has sold lot 223, Hamilton's addition, for $700. Lots 1 and 4, Broadway place, has been deeded to S. B. Bond.

The Columbia City Post says: "The celebrated Dr. Welsh is the champion of all street medicine sellers ever known. He never utters a single sentence of straight English and yet his illiteracy is his success. As a tooth puller he is certainly the champion of the world."

And now the freeholder who has beautified his premises with cement walks is liable for damages as an infringer upon a patent taken out for the same ten or fifteen years ago. The royalty asked is five cents a foot. There are a number of such walks in Fort Wayne, and this item from an exchange may interest. At South Bend a suit is pending to recover the royalty.

Extensive frauds are being perpetrated on the Fort Wayne railroads, here and elsewhere, by persons who claim to belong to the theatrical profession. They apply for tickets over routes, by which they never intend traveling, secure transportation at theatrical rates, and sell the tickets to scalpers. An effort is being made to ferret out the offenders and black list them.

An adjourned meeting of the committee on the Grant memorial services was held yesterday afternoon at the office of Hon. F. P. Randall, who presided, Mayor Muhler, ex-officio chairman, declining in his favor. George DeWald reported the collection of $200 to defray the expenses of the memorial services and general progress was reported. Thirteen guns will be fired Saturday morning, and one each hour thereafter until General Grant's age is numbered. The committee will hold another meeting Friday afternoon to have final action.

Outcast London.

Much excitement has recently been made by reports published on the vile condition of the slums of London. In one cellar was found a family consisting of a man sick with small pox, his dying wife, three half naked and dirty children and one pig. In some parts there is one gin mill to every hundred persons. What defilement! Yet corresponding impurities often defile the human blood. They can be cast out by Brown's Iron Bitters, the great strengthener and purifier. Mr. D. J. Strange, of Stark Lake, Florida, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the best blood purifier I ever tried. It gives all the satisfaction a man can want."

The expulsion of a low-necked lady from a Philadelphia ball-room has led to the organization there of a fashionable society for the extirpation of the decollete dress. It was at first resolved that none but high-necks should be worn, but as a concession to youthful plumpness it was finally decided that a modest triangular or heart-shaped cut in front might be allowed. It was also decided that for the advantageous display of diamond or pearl necklaces the corsage might be cut square if well filled in with lace. On the question of sleeveless gowns, shoulder-straps were emphatically trampled upon and rejected. No sleeves must be shorter than the elbow. It is stated that when this decision was reached two women with handsome arms withdrew in disgust.

CANCER OF TONGUE!

A Case Resembling that of Gen. Grant.

Some ten years ago I had a scrofulous sore on my right hand which gave me great trouble, and under the old time treatment was healed up and I supposed I was well. I found, however, it had only been driven into the system by the use of potash and mercury, and in March, 1882, it broke out in my throat and concentrated in what some of the doctors denominated cancer. I was placed under treatment for this disease. Some six or seven of the best physicians of the country had me at different times under their charge, among them three specialists in this line; but one after another would exhaust their skill and drop me, for I grew worse continually. The cancer had eaten through my cheek, destroying the roof of my mouth and upper lip, then attacked my tongue, palate and lower lip, destroying the palate and under lip entirely and half my tongue, eating out to the top of my left cheek bone and up to the left eye. From a hearty, robust woman of 150 pounds, I was reduced to a mere frame of skin and bones, almost unable to turn myself in bed. I could not eat any solid food, but subsisted on liquids and my tongue was so far gone I could not talk. The anguish of mind and the horrible sufferings of body which I experienced never can be revealed. Given up by physicians to die, with no hope of recovery upon the part of friends who sat around my bedside expecting every moment to be my last; in fact, my husband would place his hand on me every now and then to see whether I was alive or not, and at one time all decided that life was extinct, and my death was reported all over the country.

Such was my wretched and helpless condition the first of last October (1884), when my friends commenced giving me Swift's Specific. In less than a month, the eating places stopped and healing commenced, and the fearful aperture in my cheek has been closed and firmly knitted together. A process of a new under lip is progressing finely, and the tongue which was almost destroyed is being recovered, and it seems that nature is supplying a new tongue. I can talk so that my friends can readily understand me, and can eat solid food again. I am able to walk about wherever I please without the assistance of anyone and have gained fifty pounds of flesh. All this under the blessing of a mercifully Heavenly Father, is due to Swift's Specific. I am a wonder and a marvel to all my friends, hundreds of whom have known my intense sufferings, and have visited me in my afflictions. While I am not entirely well, yet my gratitude is none the less devout, and I am confident that a perfect recovery is now in sight. If any doubt these facts, I would refer them to Hon. John H. Traylor, state senator of this district, who is my neighbor, Dr. T. S. Bradfield, of LaGrange, Ga., or to any other persons living in the southern part of Troupe county, Ga.

Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works.

No. 12 West Columbia Street Fort Wayne, Indiana.

To Painters

And others wanting First-class Paints: Do you know that you have in Fort Wayne a Manufacturer of Mixed Paint and Grinder of Colors, where you can buy your Paints from first hand instead of paying the middle man his profits, which are from 25 to 331/3 per cent. O. L. STARKEY, the Painter and proprietor of the Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works, came to Fort Wayne in April, 1856, and is identified as one of the old citizens who has helped build up Fort Wayne, and his knowledge of Paints and the composition of pigments to form different shades and tints is well-known to the public, and his long practical experience in painting gives him the knowledge of Paints that a mere dealer cannot have for he does not know anything about Paints, as he buys them sealed up and he cannot tell you what it takes to make this or that shade. All he knows is what the label on the can says. Neither can he tell you shades that will or will not fade. By buying your Paints of O. L. STARKEY you can get all the information you want. I am making Liquid Paints in all shades and colors; also the same shades and colors in paste form, the same thickness as white lead and requires thinning down the same as white lead. In making the different shades my formulas are all registered giving the amount of each color it takes to form certain shades all thoroughly mixed together in the powder mills, then wet down and run through a mixing machine, and from there to the mills where it is all ground together making a pigment that cannot be made by hand. Call or send and get some of my sample cards of colors and tints; also see elevations of gothic houses colored up with four and five shades, which will give you a good idea how to paint and ornament the outside of your houses.

I say again, do not buy of the middle man if you want to save money. I will guarantee my prices and quality of goods with any manufacturer in the United States.

PAWNED A TICKER.

The Son of a Celina Capitalist Comes Here For a Time and Drops His Gold Watch.

Some days ago Capt. Hugh M. Diehl received a telegram from Edward Landfair, dated at Celina, Ohio, saying: "Ask Officer Stewart where my son, Robert, pawned his watch. Redeem it and send it C. O. D." There is no "Officer Stewart," and the captain could not find the watch. He so notified the Celina papa, and yesterday the old man hastened here. He called on a young lady whom his wayward son courted and the woman explained the "session," as the young man's spree is called in society. Mr. Landfair and Captain Diehl proceeded to a fashionable saloon and redeemed the gold watch and chain paying $40. This time piece Mr. Landfair gave his son a few weeks ago when the heir returned from a tour of California. He could not stand such prosperity and came here to work it off. Mr. Landfair is a millionaire, but his son is preparing to spread the wealth to the four winds.

The young man's paramour is in the city and smiles on susceptible people whom she likes to work as she did the Celina youth. The girl has rooms on Calhoun street and the police are instructed to make her a prisoner when they find her. This is the wages of sin.

A Benefit Association Changed.

At the annual meeting of the delegates of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Mutual Benefit Association, it was decided to change the name of the association to "The Pennsylvania Company's Mutual Benefit Association" and it was arranged to hold the next meeting at Alliance, Ohio, July 23, 1886. The matter of changes in the constitution and by-laws coming up for consideration, it was agreed that the loss of an arm, or of a leg, would henceforth be considered, in applications for membership, as a partial disability, and the loss of both arms, or both legs, or both eyes, a total disability. All members of good standing in the old association will be taken into the new association as charter members, regardless of their ages, but persons who have forfeited their membership by not paying up assessments, if over fifty years old, will not be admitted to the new association.

Dr. Lighthall's License.

The Indianapolis Times says: "Dr. J. I. Lighthall, the peripatetic tooth carpenter, obtained a physician's license at the Clerk's office last week from one of Mr. McLain's deputies. He presented a diploma from the dental department of the University of Tennessee, at Clarksville. The license was issued only after one or two physicians, who happened to be in the office at the time, advised that it be done. As soon as Mr. McLain heard of it he took steps toward revoking the license. He is now awaiting word from Dr. Lighthall. If the latter refuses to return the license, Mr. McLain will publish his revoking order."

Craig & Irvine Attorneys at Law.

Mr. W. L. Craig, formerly receiver of the Toledo, Cincinnati and St. Louis, and Mr. James Irvine, the well known railroad lawyer of Lima, have formed a partnership for the practice of law. They will have an office on the fifth floor of the produce exchange building at Toledo. Mr. Irvine was formerly the law partner of Calvin Brice, the first Nickel Plate solicitor, who made a fortune in railroad speculation and moved to New York. Mr. Craig is one of the brightest and shrewdest men in the country, and it is safe to say the firm will grow into prominence and wealth.

A Nude Outrage.

The Rome City Clipper says: "It gives our popular resort a good name to allow a crowd of Fort Wayne roughs to go in bathing from the steamer house as was the case Friday, the day of the policemen's excursion, where ladies passing to and from the Park and Jem Island, could not help but gaze on their nude forms. Was our constable asleep, if not, why did he allow this?"

This is little worse than the spectacle of grown men bathing in the Spring Beach surf with little else to hide them than charity and an old pair of drawers, clipped off at the knees. The Clipper should suppress this.

Of Course We Will.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL:

The Golden Eagle Base Ball club, of this city, does not belong to Tom Clark, nor is it composed partly of colored boys, as stated in yesterday's SENTINEL. It is an amateur club, composed of young and supple fellows, who play ball creditably, and as champions of Fort Wayne should receive, at least, fair treatment from the press, and this you will readily give within your columns, I am sure. A FRIEND OF THE CLUB.

Honor to General Grant.

Postmaster Kaough received this general order No. 614 to-day:

In recognition of the nation's loss in the death of General Ulysses S. Grant, and in participation of its lamentation and expression of reverence for his honored memory, all post offices in the several states and territories of the Union are ordered to be closed between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m., on Saturday, the 8th day of August, appointed for the celebration of his funeral obsequies.

By order of the postmaster general.

A. E. STEVENSON,
First Ass't P. M. General.

In accordance with instructions from Washington the postoffice will be closed from 1 to 5 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, August 8, out of respect to Gen. U. S. Grant, whose funeral then occurs.

WM. KAOUGH, Postmaster.

A Youth from Bavaria Toys With a Pistol and Shoots His Companion—Almost a Tragedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ketsch arrived here some months ago with a party of emigrants. They came from Bavaria, where Napoleon and the German chieftans were wont to look for their finest soldiers. The emigrants engaged rooms on Barr street, between Washington and Jefferson streets. Mr. Ketsch went to work at the Peters Box and Lumber company and soon sent for his son and his wife's brother, named Miller. The boys, aged thirteen and twenty-five, arrived this morning and at once proceeded to the Ketsch house. Their first business was to wash and clean themselves of coal dust, and while thus engaged in the room assigned them, young Ketsch discovered a revolver on the shelf. The weapon was neat and novel to him and he proceeded to explore it. This experiment proved disastrous, as the boy promptly sent a bullet through his companion's right leg, just above the knee. Young Miller howled with pain and the neighborhood was soon aroused. Dr. Mortz was summoned and administered what relief he could to the poor boy, who cannot walk and may loose the use of his limb, as paralysis threatens to seize him. Young Ketsch never saw a revolver before and the result of his discovery nearly frightened the life out of him.

Out Door Sports.

With the opening of the season of out door sports comes the time of trouble for the poor victims of Hay Fever and Rose Cold. For them flowers have no odor and the summer little or no beauty. To snuff, sneeze and wipe their weeping eyes for three or four successive months—this is their pitiable portion. There is no help in sea voyages, there is no help in high mountain air. But there is a positive cure in Ely's Cream Balm. Try it. If you continue to suffer it is because you neglect a remedy as sure as it is cheap and pleasant.
